I am learning to ... talk about and explain my own feelings.

Can we ...?

I feel ...

✚ Talk about our feelings.

✚ Ask each other questions (about the past, present and future) such as:

- How did you feel when ...? Why did you feel...? What made you feel ...?
- How do you feeling about ...? Why do you feel...? What makes you feel ...?
- How do you think you will feel when ...? Why do you think you would feel...?

How did you feel when you started school?

How do you think you will feel when you go into Year One?

I felt ... because

How are you feeling today?

I think I will feel ...because...

I feel ... because...

To help me get better at my writing, I could ...

- Write about something that made me feel happy. I could also write why.
- Write a thought bubble about how I feel today.

Top tips to help me learn ...

- ⇒ Ask me questions about how I felt/feel in the past, present and future to help me to use my tenses accurately. Encourage me to explain my feelings.
- ⇒ Encourage me to ask you questions about how you feel. I need to listen carefully to your responses.
- ⇒ Use a range of words to describe your feelings e.g. proud, excited, curious, grateful, worried, anxious, annoyed, and frustrated. Help me to understand and use some of these words.
- ⇒ Ask me to read my writing back to you.
- ⇒ Celebrate my learning, what you think I did well and why.
