

Living Things Jigsaw

Cut out each triangle and match the answers to the questions to construct the jigsaw. Stick your completed jigsaw to a plain piece of A4 paper.

a fungus

What are animals with a backbone called?

insects

Who developed the 1st standard classification system?

Name two arachnids.

Cheese, wine and bread.

Carl Linnaeus

Which class of animals feed milk to their young?

What is mould?

They don't have a backbone.

fish

Which invertebrates have a pair of antennae on their heads?

vertebrates

What can microorganisms be used to make?

Spiders and scorpions.

mammals

What are the characteristics of reptiles?

Cold blooded, hard scaly skin and lay eggs on land.

What is special about invertebrates?

Living Things Jigsaw

Cut out each triangle and match the answers to the questions to construct the jigsaw. Stick your completed jigsaw to a plain piece of A4 paper.

amphibians

What is special about prokaryotic cells?

phylum chordata

What class does the platypus belong?

mammals

Systema Naturae

Are bacteria eukaryotic or prokaryotic?

What was the name of the book in which Linnaeus published his classification system?

homo sapiens

Which vertebrates use gills to breathe when they are young, and lungs when they are adult?

domain

What is the scientific name for humans?

They do not have a nucleus.

Which phylum contains all the vertebrates?

prokaryotic

What is the name of the level above kingdom in the classification system?