

English

WHERE THE WILD THINGS ARE

STORY AND PICTURES BY MAURICE SENDAK

Monday	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Plan</li></ul>
Tuesday	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Write beginning</li></ul>
Wednesday	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Write middle</li></ul>
Thursday	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Write end</li><li>• Be the teacher, how many stars have you used</li></ul>
Friday	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Make your own book and rewrite your story in your best handwriting</li></ul>

What is Miss Hope looking for?

Can you include all of the rainbow stars?

Each rainbow star is worth 1 dojo point

Plan some adjectives/phrases or sentences you might include in your story to ensure you achieve dojo points.

Teacher examples for the rest of the week

Retell of the original story

One calm night, Max was being cheeky. His mum called him "wild thing!" Max said "do you want me to eat you up?" so Max was sent to bed without any delicious supper. Later that night, something strange started to happen in Max's bedroom. Suddenly, a huge creepy forest grew and grew. Then a small red boat appeared on the blue tropical sea. Max jumped in and sailed off to where the wild things are.

When he arrived, the wild things roared and gnashed their terrible teeth. Max asked, "please can you stop?" The wild things were tamed by Max's magic trick. The crazy wild things made Max their king. "Let the wild rumpus start!" yelled king Max. They danced and stomped all night long.

"Now stop!" shouted Max and he sent all the sleepy wild things off to bed. Then king Max was sad and lonely and wanted to go home. But the unhappy wild things cried and begged for Max to stay. "Please don't go, can you stay with us?" Max jumped back into his red wooden boat and waved good-bye. Finally Max arrived home and his delicious hot supper was waiting for him.

A different setting and characters

One peaceful night, Hannah was being polite and sensible. Her mum called her "nice thing!" Hannah said "Can I have a treat because I have been so well behaved today?" so Hannah was sent to bed waiting for her mum to make her a delicious treat. Later that night, something strange started to happen in Hannah's bedroom. Suddenly, a huge tropical palm tree started to grow and grow. The floor was covered in soft white sand and calm waves drifted onto the sandy shore. Then a small red boat appeared on the blue tropical sea. Hannah jumped in and sailed off to where the nice things are.

When she arrived, the nice things greeted Hannah with a huge smile. Hannah met a colourful parrot squawking in the tropical trees and met a beautiful mermaid sitting on a large rock. All the nice things were singing, squawking and making a lot of noise. Hannah asked, "please can you stop?" The nice things were tamed by Hannah's magic trick. The nice things made Hannah their queen. "Let the nice rumpus start!" yelled queen Hannah. They danced and sang all night long.

"Now stop!" shouted Hannah and she sent all the sleepy nice things off to bed. Then Queen Hannah was sad and lonely and wanted to go home. But the unhappy nice things cried and begged for Hannah to stay. "Please don't go, can you stay with us?" Hannah jumped back into her red wooden boat and waved good-bye. Finally, Hannah arrived home and her delicious treat was waiting for her.