

Clues I Can Use

How do you tell that a website is secure and that it is safe to give personal information?

Are there any warning signs to look out for that might tell you that a website is unsecure or even fraudulent?

Clues I Can Use

How do you tell that a website is secure and that it is safe to give personal information?

Are there any warning signs to look out for that might tell you that a website is unsecure or even fraudulent?

