

Wonder Self Portrait

Before school closed, we were reading Wonder.

What can you remember about the story?

Wonder is about a boy called Augie who stands out for many reasons. One is due to his facial deformity but - as we read the story - we found out that there is so much more to Augie than this. He is clever, kind, honest and brave. His sense of humour is quick and he is a loyal friend.

